

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

1. Abide by - To obey a rule

We should abide by the traffic rules for safe driving.

2. Agree with - To support an idea/plan/person OR to have the same opinion

I agree with your mother on this matter.

3. Agree to – give permission or accept something

My teacher has agreed to give me extra classes.

4. Agree on – decide something

We couldn't agree on an appropriate gift for our mother.

5. Appeal to – To make a request / To be attractive

Appeal to the government if you want change in the tax policy.

Tiny houses on the mountains appeal to me.

6. Apply to – concern, use where something is relevant

This rule doesn't apply to you.

7. Apply for – used when you want to obtain something like a job, scholarship, position; when you are requesting something

I want to apply for this job.

8. Apply with – the means by which you apply

For offline registrations, you may apply with a written application.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

9. Back away – To retract OR To move backwards, in fear or dislike OR withdraw from a fight/argument

Don't back away from this opportunity.

10. Back down – To give up something you are defending

I Will Never Back Down in my struggle to make India clean.

11. Back up (someone) – To give support or encouragement

Meera's decision to pursue MBA was backed up by her father.

12. Back up (something) – To make a copy of

It is advisable to back up your important data.

13. Back into – backward movement (generally backing a car while driving)

I'll back into the garage and come.

14. Back onto - connecting from the backs

My outhouse backs onto the main road.

15. Back Out – Quit

My leg injury made me back out from the race.

16. Bank on – to rely on confidently

They ditched me last time. I cannot bank on them.

17. Black out – To lose consciousness, to faint

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

Due to low blood pressure, I had a blackout on the street.

18. Block off – To separate

The main street has been blocked off by the police.

19. Blow up - To explode/To get angry/ to ruin

Due to excessive load, the meter blew up.

We have a meeting tomorrow. Please don't blow it up.

20. Blow off - to cancel

Please don't blow off tomorrow's plan.

21. Blow away - to be very impressed

I was blown away by her beauty.

22. Blow out - to extinguish

Now quickly blow out your candles.

23. Blow apart - to show that an idea is completely wrong

The student's explanation blew apart the professor's theory.

24. Boil down to - means/ can be summarised as

It all boils down to education and upbringing.

25. Break away - to leave or escape from someone who is holding you

He tried to break away but his master was holding him tight.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

26. Break down (machine) - to stop functioning

This car needs repair. Don't take it for a long drive it may break down.

27. Breakdown (emotionally) - to lose control of one's emotions

After knowing about her friend's critical illness, she broke down.

28. Break into - To enter by force

The thieves tried to break into my house but they couldn't.

29. Break out (war/ fight) - To start suddenly

The two countries broke out into a war.

30. Break out of - to escape

The Prisoners broke out of the cell last night.

31. Break through - to pass through a barrier

Achieving speech to text conversion was a breakthrough in technology.

32. Break up - to end a relationship

After 4 years of togetherness, they finally broke up.

33. Bring up - to raise/ cause something to be considered

It is difficult for a single parent to bring up the kids.

Don't bring up this topic in front of me ever again .

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

34. Bring down - to lower the importance or rate of something / lower the position

We are ready to bring down the corrupt party.

35. Bring on - lead to

She brings on bad name to the family.

36. Bring out - to highlight/ publish

It's good that you bring out the mistakes in the documents.

37. Bring in - introduce

The company will soon bring in a new smartphone.

38. Brush up - to revise or refresh once knowledge

I must brush up the rules of grammar before sitting for the exam.

39. Brush aside - to ignore someone/ something

The actress brushed aside the journalist personal question saying that this interview was meant only for the promotion of the movie.

40. Brush off - to ignore someone/ to give little or no importance

She brushed him off giving a lame excuse

41. Bump into - To meet accidentally, by chance or unexpectedly

I bumped into my school teacher at a restaurant.

42. Burn out - exhausted/ stopped working

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

I had a hectic day. I am completely burnt out.

This bulb is burnt out. Please change it.

43. Burn with - strong feeling

I am burning with curiosity.

44. Burn out - stop burning/ extinguished

Let the fire burn out completely by itself.

45. Burn up - consume in huge quantity

This car burns up a lot of fuel.

46. Call after - giving name to someone or something referring to someone else

The baby is called after his grandfather.

47. Call at - to stop at a place for a short time

The train calls at 3 stations before reaching Delhi.

48. Call away - to ask someone to leave a place, usually by telephoning them or sending them a message.

He was called away unexpectedly today.

49. Call back - Return a phone call.

Call me back once you are free.

50. Call for - require

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

Such times call for some advice.

51. Call for - Demand that something be done.

The court order calls for your presence next week.

52. Call forth - to cause something to come into action

The provocative speech called forth an angry reaction.

53. Call in - Make a phone call

Jenna called in to enquire about your health.

54. Call on/upon - Formally invite

I now call on the principal on stage to address the students.

55. Call out - Shout something

Receptionist called out my name as soon as my turn came.

56. Call off - To cancel

Due to differences between the couple, the wedding was called off

57. Calm down - To relax

Calm down before you speak.

58. Carry on - To continue

Carry on with your work. I have come to see your mother.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

59. Carry out - To do something as specified

The soldiers carried out the general's instructions.

60. Carry forward - to take ahead, to make something progress

A new contractor was called to carry forward the construction of the flyover.

61. Carry over - extended, postponed, to continue past a certain point

The meeting was carried over till afternoon.

62. Carry through - successfully finish/ complete

They carried through the event even after an electricity cut.

63. Check in - To register at a hotel or airport

The hotels require identity cards at the time of check in.

64. Check out - To leave after clearing the bills / To investigate

I'll check out the prices online.

65. Check on - to verify the state

The doctor went to check on his patient.

66. Clam up - To refuse to speak

The teacher asked who broke the window, but the students clammed up.

67. Clamp down on - to restrict something

The government is trying to clamp down on illegal mining.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

68. Come across - To find by chance

As I entered the house, I came across a note.

69. Come forward - volunteer

I request the interested people to come forward.

70. Come about - Happen/ Occur

Change can come about only through will.

71. Come along - accompany

Do you mind if I come along with you to Delhi?

72. Come apart - break

The flower vase came apart after falling off the table.

73. Come back - return

After a long leave, I expect you to come back with a bang.

74. Come before - appear in front of

The criminal was asked to come before the court for trial.

75. Comes down to - amounts to

It all comes down to the effort put in.

76. Count on - To rely

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

You can count on them for organising a good party.

77. Count for – be recognized as important

Education counts for a lot in getting a good job.

78. Cut down on - To reduce

I've decided to cut down on my calorie intake.

79. Cut out - To stop doing something

You need to cut out all the spicy food you eat.

80. Deal with - To handle/sort

You will have to deal with the fact that we don't have money to start the business.

81. Die down - become less strong

It took a lot of time for Tsunami to die down.

82. Do without - To manage without

We are short on funds so you will have to do without a foreign trip this year.

83. Drag on - To stretch

There's no point in dragging on the matter.

84. Draw up - To frame or write

They drew up the rules to be followed within the school premises.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

85. Dress up – to get ready

We dressed up in bright colors for the party.

86. Drop in - To visit

Drop in at my place tomorrow.

87. Drop off - To deliver someone or something

I'll drop you till your home.

88. Drop out - To leave school midway without finishing

Marc dropped out of college to start his own venture.

89. Ease off - become less severe

I rely on painkillers to ease off my headache.

90. End in - result in

Their argument ended in a big fight.

91. End up – to reach the finish

If you don't start studying, you'll end up getting fail.

92. Fall through - To fail

The deal fell through because of a petty issue.

93. Figure out - To understand

He's trying to figure out a way to help his brother.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

94. Find out - To discover something

We must find out the culprit.

95. Focus on - To concentrate

We should focus on strategy than behavior.

96. Get along (with) - to be friendly or in good terms

It's easy to get along with your sister.

97. Get at - reach or imply

I don't know what are you trying to get at.

98. Get away - To escape

I think we should get away from the crowd.

99. Get by - to survive

People without education have a hard time getting by.

100. Get in - To enter

Get in the class quickly.

101. Get into - To enter

How did you get into my house?

102. Get off - To get out of a vehicle

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

Get off my car right now.

103. Get on - To board

I should get on that bus to reach school on time.

104. Get on with (something) - make progress

After losing all her wealth, she had a hard time getting on with life.

105. Get on well with - To have a good relationship with

He does not get on very well with his family.

106. Get out of - To come out of /To avoid doing something

He is trying hard to get out of his job.

107. Get over - To recover

Long to get over the disease.

108. Get rid of - To remove

Please get rid of this old jeans.

109. Get together - To meet

Let's get together for a movie this weekend.

110. Get up - to wake up

Please get up. We are getting late.

111. Give in - yield

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

I'll not give in to your unnecessary demands.

112. Give up - To stop doing something

I have decided to give up teaching.

113. Go through - experience

You have no idea what your carelessness made me go through.

114. Grow up - become an adult/ behave like an adult.

It doesn't only take age to grow up.

115. Hand in - To submit

Please hand in your report as soon as it is ready.

116. Hand out - To distribute

Please hand out your old clothes to the poor.

117. Hand over - to pass on

Handover the important documents to me before you leave.

118. Hang out - To spend time with friends

I love to hang out with you.

119. Hang up - To disconnect the phone

I won't let you hang up before you clear the matter.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

120. Hold on - To wait

The manager is busy. Please hold on for 5 minutes.

121. Hold on - to grip tightly

Hold on to the strings of the swing tightly.

122. Hurry up - speed up

Hurry up with your homework else we'll miss the movie.

123. Iron out - To solve differences

They met to iron out their differences.

124. Join in - To be a part of

I would like you to join in for tomorrow's call.

125. Keep on - To continue doing something

If you keep on eating chips, you'll get fat.

126. Keep up with - To stay at the same pace as someone or something

I read Bollywood news to keep up with the gossip.

127. Kick off - To start

It is the right time to kick off the scheme.

128. Leave out - To exclude, not mention

Make sure you don't leave out the necessary details.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

129. Let down - To disappoint

The performance of the team has let me down.

130. Look after - To take care of

I will get you a pet only if you promise to look after it.

131. Look down on - To consider as inferior

She looks down on poor people.

132. Look for - try to find something

I am not able to find my earring. Please help me look for it.

133. Look forward to - To anticipate/wait with pleasure

I am looking forward to your birthday party.

134. Look up to - To admire

I look up to my teacher.

135. Make up - To draft or invent false story

Stop making up stories and tell me the truth.

136. Mix up - To confuse one thing or person with another

The teacher keeps mixing up the names of the students.

137. Move in - To arrive in a new home or office

Congratulations for moving in a new house.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

138. Move out - To leave

After the fight with the management Sheila decided to move out of the company.

139. Nod off - To fall asleep

Don't nod off on the couch.

140. Own up - To admit

Learn to own up to your mistakes.

141. Pass away - To die

It was sad to hear that your grandfather passed away.

142. Pass out - To faint

The dangerous ride made him pass out.

143. Pay back - To reimburse

I'll pay you back as soon as I get my salary this month.

144. Put off - To postpone

Don't put it off for tomorrow, its urgent.

145. Put on - To turn on

Please put on the lights.

146. Put out - To extinguish

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

I was able to put out the fire with the hose.

147. Put up - to stay/live

Where do you put up in Delhi?

148. Pick up - To collect somebody

I have called the cab to pick me up.

149. Point out - To indicate something

Thanks for pointing out the calculation mistake.

150. Rely on - trust

You can rely on our taxi service.

151. Rule out - To eliminate

The court has ruled him out as a culprit.

152. Run away - To escape

She ran away from the hostel at midnight.

153. Run into - To meet accidentally

I ran into your sister at the supermarket.

154. Run out of - something finished

Our car has run out of fuel.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

155. Set off - To start

Lets set off early to avoid long queue.

156. Set up - To start a business

Money is essential to set up any business.

157. Show off - To brag

He is showing off her new phone to everybody.

158. Show up - To appear

She isn't well hence may not show up today.

159. Shut up - To stop talking

You have been talking since long. You need to shut up now.

160. Stick up for - To defend

You should always stick up for your siblings.

161. Take care of - To look after

Please take care of yourself until I return.

162. Take off - Leave/Fly

The campaign took off really well.

163. Take on - to employ someone

We don't intend to take on more staff.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

164. Take out - To remove

I took out the worm from the leaf.

165. Think over - To consider

Take time to think over before you decide.

166. Try on - To wear something to see if it suits

Please try on the dress before buying it.

167. Turn down - To refuse

I hate to turn down your offer but I have a very important meeting tomorrow.

168. Use up - To finish

You used up all the milk. Now how will I make the shake?

169. Watch out - be careful

Watch out before investing all your money in one fund.

170. Wear out - To be very tired

You look so worn out today.

171. Work out - to exercise/find a solution

You have become more active since you started working out.

We should work out a plan for this weekend.

www.ixambee.com

PHRASAL VERBS

172. Wipe off - To clean

Please wipe off the table. It's very dirty.