

 Prepare 50% Faster

Practice Questions

Error Detection

Directions: Read each sentence to find out whether there is any grammatical error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. Mark the part with the error as your answer. If there is no error, mark 'No error' as your answer (Ignore errors of punctuation, if any).

Q1. It may be possible to do (A)/a field enumeration who (B)/can mark any group under (C)/castes found in the available OBC/BC lists (D).

- A. It may be possible to do
- B. a field enumeration who
- C. can mark any group under
- D. found in the available OBC/BC lists
- E. No error

Answer: B. a field enumeration who

Explanation:

Since we are not talking about a person, 'who' is incorrect. Here, 'that' is correct because it specifies a particular thing.

It may be possible to do a field enumeration that can mark any group under castes found in the available OBC/BC lists.

Q2. In front, at a weary gallop (A)/and using his leather whip, (B)/rode an officer, dishevelled and drenched, (C)/whom trousers had worked up to above his knees (D).

- A. In front, at a weary gallop
- B. and using his leather whip
- C. rode an officer, disheveled and drenched
- D. whom trousers had worked up to above his knees
- E. No error

Answer: D. whom trousers had worked up to above his knees

Explanation:

Here, the possessive relative pronoun 'whose' is correct.

In front, at a weary gallop and using his leather whip, rode an officer, dishevelled and drenched, whose trousers had worked up to above his knees.

Q3. But on the road, the highroad along that the troops marched, (A)/there was no such freshness even at night or when the road passed (B)/through the forest; the dew was imperceptible on the (C)/ sandy dust churned up more than six inches deep (D).

- A. But on the road, the highroad along that the troops marched
- B. there was no such freshness even at night or when the road passed
- C. through the forest; the dew was imperceptible on the
- D. sandy dust churned up more than six inches deep
- E. No error

Answer: A. But on the road, the highroad along that the troops marched

Explanation:

Here, 'that' is incorrect, instead 'which' is correct.

But on the road, the highroad along which the troops marched, there was no such freshness even at night or when the road passed through the forest; the dew was imperceptible on the sandy dust churned up more than six inches deep.

Q4. Eadberht showed considerable independence in his dealings (A)/with the church, and his brother Ecgberht, (B)/to who the well-known letter of Bede is addressed, (C)/was from 734 to 766 archbishop of York (D).

- A. Eadberht showed considerable independence in his dealings
- B. with the church, and his brother Ecgberht
- C. to who the well-known letter of Bede is addressed
- D. was from 734 to 766 archbishop of York
- E. No error

Answer: C. to who the well-known letter of Bede is addressed

Explanation: Here, the object pronoun, 'whom' is correct.

Eadberht showed considerable independence in his dealings with the church, and his brother Ecgberht, to whom the well-known letter of Bede is addressed, was from 734 to 766 archbishop of York.

Q5. Sure, the million-dollar offer was withdrawn (A)/but I'll bet there are thousands of people (B)/out there whom would still pay (C)/a fortune to own the artefact (D).

- A. Sure, the million-dollar offer was withdrawn
- B. but I'll bet there are thousands of people
- C. out there who would still pay
- D. a fortune to own the artifact
- E. No error

Error Detection

Answer: C. out there who would still pay

Explanation:

Here, the subject pronoun 'who' is correct.

Sure, the million-dollar offer was withdrawn but I'll bet there are thousands of people out there who would still pay a fortune to own the artifact.

Q6. To the former he owes his appreciation of exact investigation (A)/and a complete knowledge of the aims of science, (B)/to the latter an equal admiration for the great circle of ideas (B)/which had been diffused by the teaching of Fichte, Schelling and Hegel (D).

- (A) To the former he owes his appreciation of exact investigation
- (B) and a complete knowledge of the aims of science
- (C) to the latter an equal admiration for the great circle of ideas
- (D) which had been diffused by the teaching of Fichte, Schelling and Hegel
- (E) No error

Answer: E

Explanation: Here, the relative pronoun 'which' is correctly used.

Q7. Each provincial administrative junta is composed, in part, (A)/of government nominees, and in larger part of elective elements, (B)/elected by the provincial council for four years, (C)/half of which require to be elected every two years (D).

- (A) Each provincial administrative junta is composed, in part
- (B) of government nominees, and in larger part of elective elements
- (C) elected by the provincial council for four years
- (D) half of which require to be elected every two years
- (E) No error

Answer: D

Explanation:

Here, since we are talking about people, 'which' is incorrect.

Instead, the object pronoun 'whom' is correct.

Each provincial administrative junta is composed, in part, of government nominees, and in larger part of elective elements, elected by the provincial council for four years, half of whom require to be elected every two years.

Q8. In Haiti, they say it is the only thing which (A)/will cause Damballah and his wife Ayida Oueddo, (B)/a pair of the chief deities of the voodoo pantheon, (C)/to put in an appearance at a voodoo session (D).

- (A) In Haiti, they say it is the only thing which
- (B) will cause Damballah and his wife Ayida Oueddo
- (C) a pair of the chief deities of the voodoo pantheon
- (D) to put in an appearance at a voodoo session
- (E) No error

Answer: A

Explanation: Here, since it is an essential clause, 'which' should be replaced with 'that'.

In Haiti, they say it is the only thing that will cause Damballah and his wife Ayida Oueddo, a pair of the chief deities of the voodoo pantheon, to put in an appearance at a voodoo session.

Q9. In his case the ancestral hoards (A)/were under the control of his mother, the begum of Oudh, (B)/into whom hands they had been allowed to pass (C)/at the time when Hastings was powerless in council (D).

- (A) In his case the ancestral hoards
- (B) were under the control of his mother, the begum of Oudh
- (C) into whom hands they had been allowed to pass
- (D) at the time when Hastings was powerless in council
- (E) No error

Answer: C

Explanation: Here, the possessive relative pronoun 'whose' is to be used.

In his case the ancestral hoards were under the control of his mother, the begum of Oudh, into whose hands they had been allowed to pass at the time when Hastings was powerless in council.

Q10. We lived a long way from any school for the blind or the deaf, (A)/and it seemed unlikely that any one would come (B)/to such an out-of-the-way place as Tuscumbia (C)/to teach a child whom was both deaf and blind (D).

- (A) We lived a long way from any school for the blind or the deaf
- (B) and it seemed unlikely that any one would come
- (C) to such an out-of-the-way place as Tuscumbia
- (D) to teach a child whom was both deaf and blind
- (E) No error

Answer: D

Explanation: Here,

We lived a long way from any school for the blind or the deaf, and it seemed unlikely that any one would come to such an out-of-the-way place as Tuscumbia to teach a child who was both deaf and blind.

Directions: In each of the questions, a sentence is divided into five parts namely A, B, C, D and E. One of the parts is in bold and is grammatically and contextually correct. You have to identify which other fragment, apart from the bold one, is correct in terms of grammar and usage.

Q11. There are several auditor and investment manager (A)/ in the state whose services may be (B)/ availed off by the state police (C)/ whether to train a set of personnel or to develop (D)/a stream to deal only into economic offenses (E).

- (A) A
- (B) C
- (C) D
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 3

Explanation:

A- Here, since 'several' is used, 'auditors and managers' should have been used.

C- The phrase 'availed of' will be correct, not 'availed off'. 'Avail yourself of something' means 'to make use of something'.

E- The phrase 'deal with something' will be correct. The phrase used here, 'deal only into' does not give a comprehensive meaning.

There are several auditors and investment managers in the state whose services may be availed of by the state police whether to train a set of personnel or to develop a stream to deal only with economic offenses.

Q12. The decision came in the awake of (A)/a compliant received by the health ministry (B)/about ineligible beneficiaries faking their identity (C)/as health and frontline workers (D)/ to register vaccination (E).

- (A) A
- (B) B
- (C) C
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 3

Explanation:

A- The phrase 'in the awake of' is incorrect. The correct phrase is 'in the wake of'. 'If something happens in the wake of something else, it happens after and often because of it'.

B- The word 'compliant' is wrong in this context. It means 'disposed to agree with others or obey rules, especially to an excessive degree'. The correct word which should have been used here is 'complaint'.

E- The preposition 'for' should be used before 'vaccination' in order to make the phrase grammatically correct.

The decision came in the wake of complaints received by the health ministry about ineligible beneficiaries faking their identity as health and frontline workers to register for vaccination.

Q13. The last times India's seven-day average (A)/of daily cases was the highest in the world (B)/was for October 19 last year, (C)/before a massive surge in cases make (D)/the US the world's leading coronavirus hotspot (E).

- (A) A
- (B) B
- (C) C
- (D) D
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 2

Explanation:

A- Since we are talking about one particular point of time, 'last times' is incorrect, and should be replaced by 'last time'.

C- The date is specified. So, 'on' is the correct preposition, and not 'for'.

D- The word 'make' does not comply with the tense. It should be replaced with 'made'.

The last time India's seven-day average of daily cases was the highest in the world was on October 19 last year, before a massive surge in cases made the US the world's leading coronavirus hotspot.

Q14. All ships stranded by the grounding of (A)/ the giant container ship Ever Given (B)/in the Suez Canal in March had passed away (C)/the canal though Saturday, ending the backlog (D)/that built up among the blockage (E).

- (A) A
- (B) C
- (C) D
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 1

Explanation:

C- The phrase 'pass away' means 'die'. The correct phrase here is 'passed through the canal'.

D- The word 'though' is inappropriate at that place. The correct word is 'on' or 'by'.

E- Here, the word 'among' is incorrect. The ships passed through the canal ending the backlog created at the time of the blockage. So, instead of 'among', 'during' is more appropriate.

All ships stranded by the grounding of the giant container ship Ever Given in the Suez Canal in March had passed through the canal by Saturday, ending the backlog that built up during the blockage.

Q15. Prosecutors in Taiwan sought an arrest warrant (A)/for the honour of an unmanned truck (B)/that rolled onto a train and caused (C)/the country's worst rail disaster for decades, (D)/killing 50 people and injured 178 (E).

- (A) B
- (B) C
- (C) D
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 2

Explanation:

B- The word 'honour' is inappropriate here. The correct word should be 'owner'.

D- The preposition 'for' will give a wrong meaning of the sentence. The correct preposition is 'in'.

E- The word 'injured' does not comply with the tense. The correct word should be 'injuring'.

Prosecutors in Taiwan sought an arrest warrant for the owner of an unmanned truck that rolled onto a train and caused the country's worst rail disaster in decades, killing 50 people and injuring 178.

Q16. Britain's medicine regulator are urging people (A)/to continue taking Astra Zeneca coronavirus vaccine, (B)/despite revealing this seven people (C)/in the UK have died in (D)/rare blood clots after getting the jab (E).

- (A) A
- (B) B
- (C) C
- (D) D
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 2

Explanation:

A- Since 'regulator' is a single person, 'is' should be used, not 'are'.

C- The word 'this' does not fit in here, because, these seven people are not mentioned in the sentence before. So, it should be replaced with 'that'.

D- Here, rather than using 'in', 'from' is more suitable. 'Died from rare blood clots' is correct.

Britain's medicine regulator is urging people to continue taking Astra Zeneca coronavirus vaccine, despite revealing that seven people in the UK have died from rare blood clots after getting the jab.

Q17. Two months after the (A)/Taliban takeover on Kabul, (B)/New Delhi be planning (C)/to engaged regional powers (D)/on the future of Afghanistan (E).

- (A) B
- (B) C
- (C) D
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct.

Answer: 4

Explanation:

B- the word 'takeover' means 'an act of taking control of something'. 'takeover on something' is incorrect. The correct preposition must be 'of'.

C- here the verb 'be' is incorrect. Instead, 'is' is correct.

D- here, 'to engaged' is grammatically incorrect. Instead, 'to engage' must be used.

Two months after the Taliban takeover of Kabul, New Delhi is planning to engage regional powers on the future of Afghanistan.

Q18. As tensions boiled of between the two countries (A)/following the Galwan Valley clashes last year, (B)/India ramped up its overall deployment along (D)/the nearly 3,400-km-long LAC beside speeding up (D)/infrastructure development for gain a tactical advantage (E).

- (A) A
- (B) C
- (C) D
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 2

Explanation:

A- here, the preposition 'of' should be replaces with 'over'.

D- 'beside' is incorrect here. It means 'at the side of, next to'. This is incorrect. The correct word is 'besides', which means 'in addition to'.

E- here, 'for gain' is incorrect. Instead, 'to gain' should be used.

As tensions boiled over between the two countries following the Galwan Valley clashes last year, India ramped up its overall deployment along the nearly 3,400-km-long LAC besides speeding up infrastructure development to gain a tactical advantage.

Q19. But this project win, (A)/Sterlite Power now has a portfolio of (B)/26 projects across India and Brazil, (C)/which includes projects under various stage (D)/for development and those that have been sold (E).

- (A) A
- (B) B
- (C) D
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 2

Explanation:

A- here, 'but' is incorrect. It should be changed to 'with'.

D- here, 'various stages' is correct

E- here, the preposition 'for' is incorrect. The correct preposition is 'of'.

With this project win, Sterlite Power now has a portfolio of 26 projects across India and Brazil, which includes projects under various stages of development and those that have been sold.

Q20. Long before COVID-19 hits, (A)/countless workers engage in mines, (B)/construction and factories to India (C)/were silently dying of exposure (D)/to dust, utmost exploitation and apathy (E).

- (A) A
- (B) B
- (C) C
- (D) E
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 4

Explanation:

The correct part of the sentence is in the past tense. So, we can understand that the sentence is talking about a past action.

A- here, 'hit' is correct, since past tense should be used.

B- here, 'engaged' is correct.

C- the preposition 'to' is incorrect. The correct preposition is 'in'.

Long before COVID-19 hit, countless workers engaged in mines, construction and factories in India were silently dying of exposure to dust, utmost exploitation and apathy.

Q21. Britain's medicine regulator are urging people (A)/to continue taking Astra Zeneca coronavirus vaccine, (B)/despite revealing this seven people (C)/in the UK have died in (D)/rare blood clots after getting the jab (E).

- (A) A
- (B) B
- (C) C
- (D) D
- (E) All are correct

Answer: 2

Explanation:

A- Since 'regulator' is a single person, 'is' should be used, not 'are'.

C- The word 'this' does not fit in here, because, these seven people are not mentioned in the sentence before. So, it should be replaced with 'that'.

D- Here, rather than using 'in', 'from' is more suitable. 'Died from rare blood clots' is correct.

Britain's medicine regulator is urging people to continue taking Astra Zeneca coronavirus vaccine, despite revealing that seven people in the UK have died from rare blood clots after getting the jab.

Directions: From the options given below, select the option which states the correct combination of incorrect sentences.

Q22. I. The traditional education system has long been criticised for curbing a student's natural creative ability.

II. New tools and innovations also help make online learning more user-friendly, provide more space for experimentation and expose learners to new ideas.

III. Technologies such as 3D videos, simulations and augmented reality have created an immersive experience for learners and enabled the sharing of knowledges and informations in creative and dynamic ways.

- (A) Only II is incorrect
- (B) Only III is incorrect
- (C) Both I and II are incorrect
- (D) Both II and III are incorrect
- (E) All are incorrect

Answer: B. Only III is incorrect

Explanation: The word 'informations' is incorrect. The plural of 'information' is 'information'. Also, here, the word 'knowledge' should have been used and not 'knowledges', as it is an uncountable noun and does not have singular or plural forms.

The correct statement would be: Technologies such as 3D videos, simulations and augmented reality have created an immersive experience for learners and enabled the sharing of knowledge and information in creative and dynamic ways.

Q23. I. The most impactful applications of responsible ML will come in how we apply our learnings to build a better Twitter.

II. The move comes at a time when several users criticised the platform over its image-cropping feature.

III. Twitter is hardly the first social network to be accused in racial discrimination on the platform.

- (A) Only I is incorrect
- (B) Only II is incorrect
- (C) Both I and III are incorrect
- (D) Both II and III are incorrect
- (E) All are incorrect

Answer: C. Both I and III are incorrect

Explanation:

I- Here, the preposition 'in' is incorrect. It should be 'from'.

The correct statement would be:

The most impactful applications of responsible ML will come from how we apply our learnings to build a better Twitter.

III- The preposition 'in' after 'accused' is incorrect. The correct preposition is 'of'. 'Accused of something' is the correct usage.

The correct statement is:

Twitter is hardly the first social network to be accused of racial discrimination on the platform.

Q24. I. Translation tools from Alphabet Inc's Google and other companies could be contributing to significant misunderstanding of legal terms with conflicting meanings such as "enjoin," according to research due to be presented at an academic workshop.

II. The new paper rises concerns about a popular method companies use to broaden the vocabulary of their translation software.

III. Researchers previously have found programs that learn translations by studying non-diverse text perpetuate historical gender biases, such as associating "doctor" with "he."

- (A) Only I is incorrect
- (B) Only II is incorrect
- (C) Both I and II are incorrect
- (D) Both II and III are incorrect
- (E) All are incorrect

Answer: B. Only II is incorrect

Explanation:

II- The word 'rises' should be replaced by the word 'raises'.

When something 'rises', it does it on its own power. 'Rises' is an intransitive verb, meaning there is no object that accompanies it.

On the other hand, when something 'raises', it's a transitive verb that is followed by an object.

The sentence can be rephrased correctly as:

The new paper raises concerns about a popular method companies use to broaden the vocabulary of their translation software.

Q25. I. The beauty of Indian classical music is that it is unique in how it can depict one's emotions, thoughts, and feelings.

II. Like in any art form, it takes several years of intensive learning and practice to begin to understand the nuances of Indian classical music.

III. The study and understanding of classical music offer benefits such as developing a sense of discipline, exposes one to poetry and literature, and allowing a deep grasp of Math.

- (A) A Only II is incorrect
- (B) B. Both I and II are incorrect
- (C) C. Both I and III are incorrect
- (D) D. Only III is incorrect
- (E) All are incorrect

Answer: D. Only III is incorrect

Explanation:

III- Here, the word 'exposes' does not comply with the tense. The correct word to be used is 'exposing'.

The correct sentence will be:

The study and understanding of classical music offer benefits such as developing a sense of discipline, exposing one to poetry and literature, and allowing a deep grasp of Math.

Q26. I. By social distancing and contactless servicing now being the norm, the industry needs to prepare itself by bringing in additional manpower and using advanced technology to establish new opportunities for growth.

II. With a significant number of businesses on hold and numerous jobs lost due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the hospitality industry has seen a rough time.

III. The industry is anticipated to revive within a year and cater to fewer numbers rather than many.

- (A) Only II is incorrect
- (B) Both I and II are incorrect
- (C) Only III is incorrect
- (D) Both II and III are incorrect
- (E) All are incorrect

Answer: B. Both I and II are incorrect

Explanation:

I- the preposition 'by' does not make a sense there. It should be replaced by the preposition 'with'.

The correct sentence would be:

With social distancing and contact-less servicing now being the norm, the industry needs to prepare itself by bringing in additional manpower and using advanced technology to establish new opportunities for growth.

II- The noun 'significance', which means 'importance' should be replaced by the adjective 'significant', which means 'important or noticeable'.

The correct sentence would be:

With a significant number of businesses on hold and numerous jobs lost due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the hospitality industry has seen a rough time.

Q27. I. Twitter Inc has launched an initiative to provide users context on what it uses machine learning (ML) algorithm.

II. The move comes at a time when several users criticised the platform over its image-cropping feature.

III. Twitter is hardly the first social network to be accused in racial discrimination on the platform.

- (A) Only I is incorrect
- (B) Only II is incorrect
- (C) Both I and III are incorrect
- (D) Both II and III are incorrect
- (E) All are incorrect

Answer: C. Both I and III are incorrect

I – on HOW it uses (thing being used will be referred to using WHAT, for method, we'll use HOW)

III- accused OF racial discrimination

Q28. I. The state government has conveyed an all-party meeting to be chaired by the CM to discuss the reopening of Sterlite copper plant to manufacture oxygen.

II. The Chief Minister wrote to the Prime Minister urging him to immediately cancel the order to divert 80 tonnes of oxygen produced in TN to Andhra Pradesh and Telangana.

III. When the number of active cases crossing one lakh, the state government's requirement for medical oxygen would increase significantly in the coming days.

- (A) Both I and II are correct
- (B) Both II and III are correct
- (C) Only II is correct
- (D) Only I is correct
- (E) All are correct.

Answer: C

Explanation:

I- The word 'convened' is appropriate than the word 'conveyed'. 'Convene' means 'to bring together a group of people for a meeting, or to meet for a meeting'.

The state government has convened an all-party meeting to be chaired by the CM to discuss the reopening of Sterlite copper plant to manufacture oxygen.

II- This is correct.

III- The preposition 'when' does not give a proper meaning and is to be replaced with the preposition 'with'.

With the number of active cases crossing one lakh, the state government's requirement for medical oxygen would increase significantly in the coming days.

Q29. I. Output from India's eight core sectors accelerated for the second successively month in August.

II. All sub-sectors except refinery products and crude oil were above pre-COVID levels.

III. Higher power production is reflective of general buoyant activity at the economy.

- (A) Only I is incorrect
- (B) II and III are incorrect
- (C) I and III are incorrect
- (D) I, II and III are incorrect
- (E) All sentences are correct.

Answer: C

Explanation:

I- the adjective 'successive' is correct, not 'successively'.

Output from India's eight core sectors accelerated for the second successive month in August.

III- here, the preposition 'at' is incorrect. 'in' is correct.

Higher power production is reflective of general buoyant activity in the economy.

Direction: From the options given below, select the option which states the correct combination of correct sentences.

Q30. I. A storm is brewing on the climate diplomacy front that India needs to navigate carefully to avoid becoming a fall guy.

II. Historically, developed countries have shifted the goalposts on climate action and reneged on financial and technological promises to developing countries.

III. Less than ten countries have acted domestic law on net zero; the rest have made pledges or policy statements.

- (A) Only I is correct
- (B) Both I and II are correct
- (C) Only III is correct
- (D) Both II and III are correct
- (E) All are correct

Answer: B. Both I and II are correct

Explanation:

I- This statement is correct. The phrase 'to be a fall guy' means 'a person who is falsely blamed for something that has gone wrong, or for a crime that they have not committed'.

II- This statement is correct as well. The word 'reneged' means 'to fail to keep a promise or an agreement, etc.'

III- This contains an error. The word 'acted' is inappropriate. The correct word is 'enacted'.

Less than ten countries have enacted domestic law on net zero; the rest have made pledges or policy statements.

Q31. I. The state government has conveyed an all-party meeting to be chaired by the CM to discuss the reopening of Sterlite copper plant to manufacture oxygen.

II. The Chief Minister wrote to the Prime Minister urging him to immediately cancel the order to divert 80 tonnes of oxygen produced in TN to Andhra Pradesh and Telangana.

III. When the number of active cases crossing one lakh, the state government's requirement for medical oxygen would increase significantly in the coming days.

- (A) Both I and II are correct
- (B) Both II and III are correct
- (C) Only II is correct
- (D) Only I is correct
- (E) All are correct.

Answer: C. Only II is correct

Explanation:

I- The word 'convened' is more appropriate than the word 'conveyed'. 'Convene' means 'to bring together a group of people for a meeting, or to meet for a meeting'.

The state government has convened an all-party meeting to be chaired by the CM to discuss the reopening of Sterlite copper plant to manufacture oxygen.

II- This is correct.

III- The preposition 'when' does not give a proper meaning and is to be replaced with the preposition 'with'.

With the number of active cases crossing one lakh, the state government's requirement for medical oxygen would increase significantly in the coming days.

Q32. I. HSBC has retained its growth forecasts for India despite the second wave of Covid and has said that it intends to grow its business in the country.

II. Even as multinational rivals like Citi have announced its exit from the consumer business in India amid the pandemic, HSBC has said that it is going the other way.

III. While the bank did rationalise its branch operations in India a few years earlier, which gave an impression of shrinking, the consumer base in India has grown.

- (A) Only II is correct
- (B) Only III is correct
- (C) Both II and III are correct
- (D) Both I and III are correct
- (E) All are correct.

Answer: B. Only III is correct

Explanation:

I- The word 'despise' means 'to feel a strong dislike for someone or something because you think that that person or thing is bad or has no value'. This is wrong. 'Despite' is the correct word to be used.

HSBC has retained its growth forecasts for India despite the second wave of Covid and has said that it intends to grow its business in the country.

II- The pronoun 'its' is incorrect and should be replaced with 'their', since we are talking about 'rivals'.

Even as multinational rivals like Citi have announced their exit from the consumer business in India amid the pandemic, HSBC has said that it is going the other way.

III is correct.

Q33. I. A number of vaccine providers have canceled second-dose appointments because they ran out of supply or didn't have the right brand in stock.

II. From the outset, public health experts worried that it would be difficult to get everyone to return for a second shot three or four weeks later the first dose.

III. It is no surprise that, with vaccines are rolled out more broadly, the numbers of those skipping their second dose have gone up.

- (A) Only I is correct
- (B) Both I and II are correct
- (C) Only II is correct
- (D) Both II and III are correct
- (E) All are correct.

Answer: A. Only I is correct

Explanation:

I is correct.

II- The word 'later' is incorrect. It should be 'after'.

From the outset, public health experts worried that it would be difficult to get everyone to return for a second shot three or four weeks after the first dose.

III- The phrase 'with vaccines are rolled out' is incorrect. The correct preposition would be 'as' in place of 'with'.

It is no surprise that, as vaccines are rolled out more broadly, the number of those skipping their second dose have gone up.

Q34. I. A new coronavirus wave hitting Sri Lanka has halted a cricket match between two of the country's top schools that has been played for 141 years, continuing even through world wars.

II. The latest edition of Sri Lanka's longest-running sporting event was to have been played over three days without spectators.

III. The annual Royal vs St. Thomas's encounter, originally scheduled for next month, has been indefinitely put through after four players tested positive for Covid-19.

- (A) Only I is correct
- (B) Both I and II are correct
- (C) Only III is correct
- (D) Both I and III are correct
- (E) All are correct.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Sentences I and II are correct.

III- The phrase 'put (somebody) through' means 'to connect a person using a phone to the person they want to speak to'. This is inappropriate.

The correct phrase should be 'put off', which means 'to delay or move an activity to a later time, or to stop or prevent someone from doing something'.

The annual Royal vs St. Thomas's encounter, originally scheduled for next month, has been indefinitely put off after four players tested positive for Covid-19.

Q35 I. Output from India's eight core sectors accelerated for the second successively month in August.

II. All sub-sectors except refinery products and crude oil were above pre-COVID levels.

III. Higher power production is reflective of general buoyant activity at the economy.

- (A) Only II is correct
- (B) Both II and III are correct
- (C) Both I and III are correct
- (D) Only I is correct
- (E) All are correct

Answer: A. Only II is correct

Explanation: Here, only II is correct and both I and III are incorrect.

I- the adjective 'successive' is correct, not 'successively'.

Output from India's eight core sectors accelerated for the second successive month in August.

III- here, the preposition 'at' is incorrect. 'in' is correct.

Higher power production is reflective of general buoyant activity in the economy.

Q36 I. Groundnut acreage dropped almost 4%, resulting in an estimated production of 82.5 lakh tonnes.

II. The production of coarse cereals is pegged to drop to 3.4 crore tonnes from comparison to 3.6 crore last year.

III. Cash crops are like to see record production, with an estimate of 41.9 crore tonnes in the case of sugarcane.

- (A) Only II is correct
- (B) Both II and III are correct
- (C) Only I is correct
- (D) Only III is correct
- (E) All are correct

Answer: C. Only I is correct

Explanation:

Here, only statement I is correct, and the other two have errors in them.

II- here, the preposition 'from' is incorrect. Instead, 'in' should be used.

The production of coarse cereals is pegged to drop to 3.4 crore tonnes in comparison to 3.6 crores last year.

III- here, 'like' is incorrect. The adverb 'likely' is correct here.

Cash crops are likely to see record production, with an estimate of 41.9 crore tonnes in the case of sugarcane.

Q37 I. Between 69% of the country's adult population has received at least one dose of COVID-19 vaccine.

II. It also said that increased population density raises chances of COVID-19 spread.

III. It will be prudent to avoid non-essential travel and observe festivity at low key.

- (A) Both I and III are correct
- (B) Both II and III are correct
- (C) Only II is correct
- (D) Only I is correct
- (E) All are correct.

Answer: B. Both II and III are correct

Explanation:

Only I has an error, as 'between' is incorrect. 'around' or 'about' can be used.

Around 69% of the country's adult population has received at least one dose of COVID-19 vaccine.*

Q38. I. The court issued notice to the Union of India and other respondents in the case.

II. The High Court had shifted several cases to the CBI.

III. Cases including arson and looting would remain with the Special Investigation Team lead by a judge.

- (A) Only III is correct
- (B) Both I and II are correct
- (C) Both I and II are correct
- (D) Only III is correct
- (E) All are correct

Answer: B. Both I and II are correct

Explanation:

Both I and II are correct and III has an error in it. Here, 'lead' is incorrect. The past form 'led' is correct.

Cases including arson and looting would remain with the Special Investigation Team led by a judge.

Q39. I. The British economy is no long the worst performing Group of Seven economies.

II. The changes mean that the British economy has gotten nearer to clawing back the 9.7% shrinkage it experienced last year.

III. The biggest driver of Britain's upward revision in the second quarter were household spending.

- (A) Only II is correct
- (B) Only III is correct
- (C) Both I and III are correct
- (D) Both II and III are correct
- (E) All are correct

Answer: A. Only II is correct

Explanation:

Both I and III have errors. In statement I, the adjective 'longer' is correct.

The British economy is no longer the worst-performing Group of Seven economies.

III- here, 'the biggest driver' is the subject. So, instead of 'were', 'was' is correct.

The biggest driver of Britain's upward revision in the second quarter was household spending.

Directions: In each of the questions, two sentences are given which are divided into four parts (A), (B), (C) and (D). Both sentences may have errors in one or more parts or may not have any error at all. You have to find out the parts containing the error and mark that alternative as the answer.

Q40. I. Stressing the need for keeping a watch on the health condition (A)/of whom in home isolation, the minister told the officials (B)/not for compromise on tests, treatment, sanitation and quality of food in the hospitals, (C)/and insisted that there be no shortage of medicines (D).

II. The Chief Minister instructed the officials (A)/to fix the price at which (B)/the private hospitals should treat the COVID-19 patients (C)/and ensure that they were not exploited (D).

- (A) I-A&B, II-B
- (B) I-C&D, II-A&C
- (C) I-B&D, II-D
- (D) I-B&C, II-No error
- (E) No error in any sentence

Answer: 4. -B&C, II-No error

Explanation:

Sentence I

B- The word 'whom' is incorrect here. The correct pronoun is 'those'.

C- The preposition 'for' is incorrect here. The correct preposition is 'to'.

Stressing the need for keeping a watch on the health condition of those in home isolation, the minister told the officials not to compromise on tests, treatment, sanitation and quality of food in the hospitals, and insisted that there be no shortage of medicines.

Sentence II

It is correct.

Q41. I. After qualifying for the Tokyo Olympics (A)/in the women's singles and mixed doubles last week, (B)/one would have expect the star paddler (C)/to take it easy for the next few days (D).

II. Irrespective for whether (A)/she has won a match or not, (B)/she would ensure in (C)/her training sessions never got affected (D).

- (A) I-A, II- B&C
- (B) I-B&D, II-D
- (C) I-C, II- A&C
- (D) I- A&D, II- B
- (E) No error in any sentence

Answer: 3. I-C, II- A&C

Explanation:

Sentence I

C- The word 'expect' is grammatically wrong. The correct word is 'expected'.

After qualifying for the Tokyo Olympics in the women's singles and mixed doubles last week, one would have expected the star paddler to take it easy for the next few days.

Sentence II

A- The preposition 'for' should be replaced with 'of'.

C- The preposition 'in' should be replaced with 'that' to give the intended meaning.

Irrespective of whether she has won a match or not, she would ensure that her training sessions never got affected.

Q42. I. Experts point out that unlike when the first wave, (A)/a shorter exposure is enough to acquire the virus, (B)/which enables an infected person to infect four to five persons, (C)/within a shorter contact span (D).

II. Most essentially, none is sparse, (A)/as we have observed that the virus is affecting (B)/the younger population in a big way, including those (C)/who are fitness freaks and have high immunity levels (D).

- (A) I-A&D, II-A
- (B) I-B&C, II-B
- (C) I-C&D, II-C&D
- (D) I-A&C, II-No error
- (E) No error in any sentence

Answer: 1, I-A&D, II-A

Explanation:

Sentence I

A- The word 'when' is incorrect here. It should be 'during'.

D- The comparative form of 'short' is 'shorter'. The usage of 'more short' is incorrect.

Experts point out that unlike during the first wave, a shorter exposure is enough to acquire the virus, which enables an infected person to infect four to five persons, within a shorter contact span.

Sentence II

The word 'sparse' is wrong here. It means 'small in numbers or amount, often spread over a large area'. The correct word is 'spared'. The word 'spare' here means 'to prevent someone from having to experience something unpleasant'.

Most essentially, none is spared, as we have observed that it is affecting the younger population in a big way, including those who are fitness freaks and have high immunity levels.

Q43. I. An artwork created from (A)/the world's large canvas painting has been sold (B)/for $62 million in Dubai, the second most expensive (C)/painting sold with a living artist (D).

II. Painted on one large canvas (A)/of the ballroom floor of (B)/the Atlantis Hotel in Dubai over seven months, (C)/the painting was split up 70 lots for sale (D).

- (A) I-B, II-C&D
- (B) I-A, II-A&B
- (C) I-B&D, II-D
- (D) I-A&C, II-A&D
- (E) 5/ No error in any sentence

Answer: 3. I-B&D, II-D

Sentence I

B- The word 'large' should be replaced by the superlative form of the word 'largest'.

D- The preposition 'with' is wrong here. It should be replaced with 'by'.

An artwork created from the world's largest canvas painting has been sold for $62 million in Dubai, the second most expensive painting sold by a living artist.

Sentence II

The word 'split up' should be changed to 'split into' to make the sentence grammatically correct.

Painted on one large canvas of the ballroom floor of the Atlantis Hotel in Dubai over seven months, it was split into 70 lots for sale.

Q44.

I. India moved a step closer (A)/to having a third vaccine in its immunisation drive (B)/against COVID-19 where the first consign (C)/of Russia's Sputnik V landed in Hyderabad (D).

II. As some top-level executives of the company had recently said, (A)/the vaccine looks set to join the immunisation programme by this month, (B)/but clarify on the price at which (C)/Sputnik V will be making available is yet to emerge (D).

- (A) I-A, II- B&D
- (B) I-C, II- C&D
- (C) I-B&C, II-A&B
- (D) I- C&D, II-C
- (E) No error in any sentence

Answer: 2. I-C, II- C&D

Explanation:

Sentence I

Here, 'where' is incorrect. It should be 'when'.

India moved a step closer to having a third vaccine in its immunisation drive against COVID-19 when the first consignment of Russia's Sputnik V landed in Hyderabad.

Sentence II

C- The verb 'clarify' is to be replaced with the noun 'clarity'.

D- The word 'making' should be changed to 'made'.

As some top-level executives of the company had recently said, the vaccine looks set to join the immunisation programme by this month, but clarity on the price at which Sputnik V will be made available is yet to emerge.

Q45. I. Biden is ready to meet any threat on the horizon, (A)/like China, which is much stronger to the Soviet Union (C)/and has opened multiple new aggressive fronts including (C)/cyberattacks, technological poaching, intellectual property theft and unfair trade practices (D).

II. A broad bipartisan consensus has developed (A)/that the United States must remain (B)/political and technological supreme (C)/and must outcompete any nation, most of all China (D).

- (A) I-A, II-B
- (B) I-B, II-C
- (C) I-C, II-D
- (D) I-D, II-A
- (E) No error

Answer: B. I-B, II-C

Explanation: I- When comparing, 'than' should be used. So, 'China, which is much stronger than the Soviet Union' is correct.

II- Here, the words 'political' and 'technological' are adjectives. We need to use adverbs here. So, 'politically and technologically supreme' is correct.

Directions: In the following question, a sentence 'X' is given. Also, two other sentences 1 and 2 are given. Mark the option which gives you the combination of errors in 1 and 2, which are based on the same rule as the error in 'X'. If sentence 'X' does not contain any error, mark 'No error in X' as the answer.

Q46. X. Screening for women aged between 50 and 64 was introduced on the Eastern Health Board region, the midlands and the north-east.

1. In the majority of Western cultures, (A)/tricks and jokes are played (B)/ in the bride and groom separately (C)/ at small parties held prior to the big day (D).

2. A distribution pact with (A)/ their chain of malls means (B)/ the content will be viewable on (C)/ monitors in malls above the country (D).

- (A) 1C and 2D
- (B) 1B and 2A
- (C) 1D and 2C
- (D) 1A and 2B
- (E) No error in X

Answer: A. 1C and 2D

Explanation: Something is introduced in/into a place, not 'on' a place. The error is in the preposition.

X. Screening for women aged between 50 and 64 was introduced in the Eastern Health Board region, the midlands and the north-east.

1. In the majority of Western cultures, tricks and jokes are played on the bride and groom separately at small parties held prior to the big day.

Tricks are played 'on' someone, not 'in/inside' someone.

2. A distribution pact with their chain of malls means the content will be viewable on monitors in malls across the country.

Here, 'across' is the correct preposition.

Q47. X. Social media is now the public square, and quirky two words prefixed for a hashtag can make a difference almost instantly.

1. You then come face to face (A)/with a wall of glass, (B)/behind which lurk the hotel reception desk, (C)/quite unless any other you will have seen (D).

2. The Court assume that (A)/firms with goals beside (B)/profit maximization will (C)/not behaves anticompetitively (D).

- (A) 1A and 2D
- (B) 1D and 2B
- (C) 1C and 2A
- (D) 1B and 2C
- (E) No error in X

Answer: B. 1D and 2B

Explanation: In X, the error is in the preposition.

X. Social media is now the public square, and quirky two words prefixed with a hashtag can make a difference almost instantly.

1. You then come face to face with a wall of glass, behind which lurks the hotel reception desk, quite unlike any other you will have seen.

2. The Court assumes that firms with goals besides profit maximization will not behave anticompetitively.

Q48. X: The fruit seller gave me some fruits yesterday, saying that they were tasty, but I found them healthier than tasty.

1. Team officials are remain quiet (A)/about the possibility of trading (B)/the more prominent player the franchise (C)/have had since moving west (D).

2. Horror genre generally (A)/interest me, but (B)/the movie I watched yesterday (C)/was scarier than interesting (D).

- (A) 1A and 2B
- (B) 1C and 2D
- (C) 1D and 2A
- (D) 1B and 2C
- (E) No error in X

Answer: B. 1C and 2D

Explanation: When we compare qualities in the same person or thing, we do not use the -er form of comparative degree but use the form of 'more'.

X. The fruit seller gave me some fruits yesterday, saying that they were tasty, but I found them more healthy than tasty.

1. Team officials are remaining quiet about the possibility of trading the most prominent player the franchise has had since moving west.

Here, the extreme thing is compared. So, 'most prominent' is to be used.

2. Horror genre generally interests me, but the movie I watched yesterday was more scary than interesting.

Q49. X. I am a big girl and the roles I got were so typical in which big girls are either laughed upon nor were dramatic attempts to educate the society that being big is not bad.

1. The early medieval carpenter were (A)/not only skilled in working the wood, (B)/yet in selecting the correct timber (C)/and shape for the job (D).

2. Italian pastry-cooks worked (A)/in both France or England (B)/during the 16th century (C)/and introduces many new baked goods (D).

- (A) 1A and 2C
- (B) 1D and 2A
- (C) 1B and 2D
- (D) 1C and 2B
- (E) No error in X

Answer: D. 1C and 2B

Explanation: In X, the error is in the conjunction. 'either...or' is correct.

X. I am a big girl and the roles I got were so typical in which big girls are either laughed upon or were dramatic attempts to educate the society that being big is not bad.

1. The early medieval carpenter was not only skilled in working the wood, but also in selecting the correct timber and shape for the job.

Here, 'not only...but also' is the correct conjunction.

2. Italian pastry-cooks worked in both France and England during the 16th century and introduced many new baked goods.

Here, 'both...and' is the correct conjunction.

Q50. X. The panchayat went for a second round of cultivation early this year, earned a good harvest and are now all set for large-scale cultivation after the monsoon.

1. Instead of catching the (A)/main dealers of cigarettes and petards, (B)/the police is being violent toward underage sellers (C)/who are considered to be victims of this tragedy (D).
2. In March 2003 a team were (A)/established to monitor (B)/the consistency of the two systems (C)/on an ongoing basis (D).

- (A) 1C and 2A
- (B) 1D and 2B
- (C) 1A and 2C
- (D) 1B and 2D
- (E) No error in X

Answer: A. 1C and 2A

Explanation: In X, the error is in the verb 'are'. Since 'panchayat' is a collective noun, the verb should be 'is'.

The panchayat went for a second round of cultivation early this year, earned a good harvest and is now all set for large-scale cultivation after the monsoon.

1. Instead of catching the main dealers of cigarettes and petards, the police are being violent toward underage sellers who are considered to be victims of this tragedy.

'Police' is always plural.

2. In March 2003 a team was established to monitor the consistency of the two systems on an ongoing basis.

'A team' is a collective noun. It is singular.

Q51. X. The Exorcist still stands today as the scary film ever made.

1. Children are the more vulnerable (A)/to this menace, but its health (B)/will not even be considered (C)/in this penny-pinching exercise (D).
2. Either could be used (A)/to broadcast from a transmitter (B)/in top of Toronto's CN Tower, (C)/the world's taller free-standing structure (D).

Error Detection

- (A) 1C and 2B
- (B) 1B and 2A
- (C) 1D and 2C
- (D) 1A and 2D
- (E) No error in X

Answer: D. 1A and 2D

Explanation: In X, we are talking about a film which is one of a kind. So, the superlative degree should be used.

X. The Exorcist still stands today as the scariest film ever made.

1 Children are the most vulnerable to this menace, but their health will not even be considered in this penny-pinching exercise.

Here also, the superlative degree is to be used.

2. Either could be used to broadcast from a transmitter on top of Toronto's CN Tower, the world's tallest free-standing structure.

Q52. X. France and Spain settled its hostilities on the island, by way of the Treaty of Ryswick of 1697, and divided Hispaniola between them.

1. These days the boat take (A)/tourists up the river, but in their past life (B)/the vessel was a lifeline to people (C)/living on the banks of the upper Mokau (D).
2. After about a week of (A)/idling on the beach, interacting for (B)/the local Tupiniquim natives, the fleet (C)/prepared to resume its journey to India (D).

- (A) 1C and 2A
- (B) 1A and 2C
- (C) 1B and 2D
- (D) 1D and 2B
- (E) No error in X

Answer: C. 1B and 2D

Explanation: Here, France and Spain are two parties. Hence, 'their' is the correct pronoun.

X. France and Spain settled their hostilities on the island, by way of the Treaty of Ryswick of 1697, and divided Hispaniola between them.

1. These days the boat takes tourists up the river, but in its past life the vessel was a lifeline to people living on the banks of the upper Mokau.

Here, 'the boat' is the subject. Hence, 'its' is the correct pronoun.

2. After about a week of idling on the beach, interacting with the local Tupiniquim natives, the fleet prepared to resume their journey to India.

The fleet refers to 'the fleet of ships'. It is plural.

Q53. X. In essays, interviews, and prefaces to his own work, he explored the problematic borderlines among historical fact and novelistic invention.

1. Residual plots indicates a (A)/well-specified model where there are (B)/a lack of pattern among the (C)/standardized residuals and their predicted values (D).

2. In additional analyses, (A)/there was no significant positive associations (B)/between pollutants and bronchitic symptoms (C)/between children without asthma (D).

- (A) 1A and 2C
- (B) 1C and 2D
- (C) 1B and 2B
- (D) 1D and 2A
- (E) No error in X

Answer: B. 1C and 2D

Explanation: X. In essays, interviews, and prefaces to his own work, he explored the problematic borderlines between historical fact and novelistic invention.

1. Residual plots indicate a well-specified model where there is a lack of pattern between the standardized residuals and their predicted values.

2. In additional analyses, there were no significant positive associations between pollutants and bronchitic symptoms among children without asthma.

Here, more than two children are being mentioned. Hence, 'among' should be used.

Q54. X. Many Chinese believe that their superior cultural ways have inspired their neighbours to imitate them and even voluntarily give tribute to the Chinese Emperor.

1. The horse appeared in China around the same time as it did in ancient Egypt and India, 3,500 years ago, in the Shang era.
2. Even though these foreigners adopted the trappings of Chinese culture and insisted they had the Mandate of Heaven to declare themselves Emperor, their presence was tolerated with great resentment.

- (A) 1B and 2C
- (B) 1C and 2C
- (C) 1D and 2A
- (D) 1A and 2 D
- (E) No error in X

Answer: B. 1C and 2C

Explanation: In 'X', the error is in the pronoun. Since 'Many Chinese' is the subject, 'its' is incorrect. It should be 'their'.

Q55. X. In the early years, especially in the inter-war years, Nehru summons the spirit of revolution.

1. By aligning himself in this vision of the future, he(A)/ regarded himself as a true and sincere revolutionary and invites (B)/his followers to immerse themselves(C)/ in his purifying, if turbulent, waters (D).

2. With a few simple step, (A)/you can transform this classically (B)/contoured design into an comfortable gliding rocker (C)/that will lasted for years to come (D).

- (A) 1A and 2C
- (B) 1D and 2A
- (C) 1C and 2B
- (D) 1B and 2D
- (E) No error in X

Answer: D. 1B and 2D

Explanation: Here, the error is in the tense. In sentence X, we can understand that the past tense should be used.

X. In the early years, especially in the inter-war years, Nehru summoned the spirit of revolution.

1. By aligning himself with this vision of the future, he regarded himself as a true and sincere revolutionary and invited his followers to immerse themselves in its purifying, if turbulent, waters.

2. With a few simple steps, you can transform this classically contoured design into a comfortable gliding rocker that will last for years to come.

Q56. X. India continues to rank poorly in various global indices that reflects the quality of life, human capital or human development in the country.

1. As many has argued, while this (A)/trend has been exacerbate by the pandemic, (B)/the country has be experiencing increasing (C)/inequality over the last couple of decades (D).
2. While it acknowledged that learning among children (A)/ have been affected because of prolonged (B)/ periods of school closures, the government announced (C)/ that he will expand its 'one class, one TV channel' scheme (D).

- (A) 1A and 2B
- (B) 1B and 2D
- (C) 1C and 2A
- (D) 1D and 2C
- (E) No error in X

Error Detection

Answer: A. 1A and 2B

Explanation: The error in A is according to the subject-verb agreement rule.

X. India continues to rank poorly in various global indices that reflect the quality of life, human capital or human development in the country.

1. As many have argued, while this trend has been exacerbated by the pandemic, the country has been experiencing increasing inequality over the last couple of decades.

2. While it acknowledged that learning among children has been affected because of prolonged periods of school closures, the government announced that it will expand its 'one class, one TV channel' scheme.

Q57. X. A decade-long experiment with hybrid democracy ended abruptly, paving the way at violence, oppression and instability.

1. This line was reiterated in (A)/India's Foreign Secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla (B)/in its interactions with (C)/the top military leadership in December 2021 (D).

2. The West exert influence (A)/in Myanmar, but it has be (B)/unable at comprehend (C)/the dynamics of power (D).

- (A) 1D and 2A
- (B) 1A and 2 C
- (C) 1C and 2B
- (D) 1B and 2D
- (E) No error in X

Answer: B. 1A and 2C

Explanation: The error is in the preposition. The preposition 'at' after 'way' is incorrect. 'paving the way for something' is correct.

X. A decade-long experiment with hybrid democracy ended abruptly, paving the way for violence, oppression and instability.

1. This line was reiterated by India's Foreign Secretary Harsh Vardhan Shringla in his interactions with the top military leadership in December 2021.

2. The West exerts influence in Myanmar, but it has been unable to comprehend the dynamics of power.

USE if falling short

Directions: Read each sentence to find out whether there is any grammatical error in it. The error, if any, will be in one part of the sentence. Mark the part with the error as your answer. If there is no error, mark 'No error' as your answer (Ignore errors of punctuation, if any).

Q58. It may be possible to do (A)/a field enumeration who (B)/can mark any group under (C)/castes found in the available OBC/BC lists (D).

- (A) It may be possible to do
- (B) a field enumeration who
- (C) can mark any group under
- (D) found in the available OBC/BC lists
- (E) No error

Answer: B

Explanation:

Since we are not talking about a person, 'who' is incorrect. Here, 'that' is correct because it specifies a particular thing.

It may be possible to do a field enumeration that can mark any group under castes found in the available OBC/BC lists.

Q59. In front, at a weary gallop (A)/and using his leather whip, (B)/rode an officer, dishevelled and drenched, (C)/whom trousers had worked up to above his knees (D).

- (A) In front, at a weary gallop
- (B) and using his leather whip
- (C) rode an officer, disheveled and drenched
- (D) whom trousers had worked up to above his knees
- (E) No error

Answer: D

Explanation:

Here, the possessive relative pronoun 'whose' is correct.

In front, at a weary gallop and using his leather whip, rode an officer, dishevelled and drenched, whose trousers had worked up to above his knees.

Q60. But on the road, the highroad along that the troops marched, (A)/there was no such freshness even at night or when the road passed (B)/through the forest; the dew was imperceptible on the (C)/sandy dust churned up more than six inches deep (D).

- (A) But on the road, the highroad along that the troops marched
- (B) there was no such freshness even at night or when the road passed
- (C) through the forest; the dew was imperceptible on the
- (D) sandy dust churned up more than six inches deep
- (E) No error

Answer: A

Explanation:

Here, 'that' is incorrect, instead 'which' is correct.

But on the road, the highroad along which the troops marched, there was no such freshness even at night or when the road passed through the forest; the dew was imperceptible on the sandy dust churned up more than six inches deep.

Q61. Eadberht showed considerable independence in his dealings (A)/with the church, and his brother Ecgberht, (B)/to who the well-known letter of Bede is addressed, (C)/was from 734 to 766 archbishop of York (D).

- (A) Eadberht showed considerable independence in his dealings
- (B) with the church, and his brother Ecgberht
- (C) to who the well-known letter of Bede is addressed
- (D) was from 734 to 766 archbishop of York
- (E) No error

Answer: C

Explanation: Here, the object pronoun, 'whom' is correct.

Eadberht showed considerable independence in his dealings with the church, and his brother Ecgberht, to whom the well-known letter of Bede is addressed, was from 734 to 766 archbishop of York.

Q62. Sure, the million-dollar offer was withdrawn (A)/but I'll bet there are thousands of people (B)/out there whom would still pay (C)/a fortune to own the artefact (D).

- (A) Sure, the million-dollar offer was withdrawn
- (B) but I'll bet there are thousands of people
- (C) out there whom would still pay
- (D) a fortune to own the artefact
- (E) No error

Answer: C

Explanation:

Here, the subject pronoun 'who' is correct.

Sure, the million-dollar offer was withdrawn but I'll bet there are thousands of people out there who would still pay a fortune to own the artefact.

Q63. To the former he owes his appreciation of exact investigation (A)/and a complete knowledge of the aims of science, (B)/to the latter an equal admiration for the great circle of ideas (B)/which had been diffused by the teaching of Fichte, Schelling and Hegel (D).

- (A) To the former he owes his appreciation of exact investigation
- (B) and a complete knowledge of the aims of science
- (C) to the latter an equal admiration for the great circle of ideas
- (D) which had been diffused by the teaching of Fichte, Schelling and Hegel
- (E) No error

Answer: E

Explanation:

Here, the relative pronoun 'which' is correctly used.

Q64. Each provincial administrative junta is composed, in part, (A)/of government nominees, and in larger part of elective elements, (B)/elected by the provincial council for four years, (C)/half of which require to be elected every two years (D).

- (A) Each provincial administrative junta is composed, in part
- (B) of government nominees, and in larger part of elective elements
- (C) elected by the provincial council for four years
- (D) half of which require to be elected every two years
- (E) No error

Answer: D

Explanation:

Here, since we are talking about people, 'which' is incorrect.

Instead, the object pronoun 'whom' is correct.

Each provincial administrative junta is composed, in part, of government nominees, and in larger part of elective elements, elected by the provincial council for four years, half of whom require to be elected every two years.

Q65. In Haiti, they say it is the only thing which (A)/will cause Damballah and his wife Ayida Oueddo, (B)/a pair of the chief deities of the voodoo pantheon, (C)/to put in an appearance at a voodoo session (D).

- (A) In Haiti, they say it is the only thing which
- (B) will cause Damballah and his wife Ayida Oueddo
- (C) a pair of the chief deities of the voodoo pantheon
- (D) to put in an appearance at a voodoo session
- (E) No error

Answer: A

Explanation:

Here, since it is an essential clause, 'which' should be replaced with 'that'.

In Haiti, they say it is the only thing that will cause Damballah and his wife Ayida Oueddo, a pair of the chief deities of the voodoo pantheon, to put in an appearance at a voodoo session.

Q66. In his case the ancestral hoards (A)/were under the control of his mother, the begum of Oudh, (B)/into whom hands they had been allowed to pass (C)/at the time when Hastings was powerless in council (D).

- (A) In his case the ancestral hoards
- (B) were under the control of his mother, the begum of Oudh
- (C) into whom hands they had been allowed to pass
- (D) at the time when Hastings was powerless in council
- (E) No error

Answer: C

Explanation: Here, the possessive relative pronoun 'whose' is to be used.

In his case the ancestral hoards were under the control of his mother, the begum of Oudh, into whose hands they had been allowed to pass at the time when Hastings was powerless in council.

Q67. We lived a long way from any school for the blind or the deaf, (A)/and it seemed unlikely that any one would come (B)/to such an out-of-the-way place as Tuscumbia (C)/to teach a child whom was both deaf and blind (D).

- (A) We lived a long way from any school for the blind or the deaf
- (B) and it seemed unlikely that any one would come
- (C) to such an out-of-the-way place as Tuscumbia
- (D) to teach a child whom was both deaf and blind
- (E) No error

Answer: D

Explanation:

Here,

We lived a long way from any school for the blind or the deaf, and it seemed unlikely that any one would come to such an out-of-the-way place as Tuscumbia to teach a child who was both deaf and blind.

Q68. Although the guidelines for on-tap licensing were announced as early as 2016, (A)/the central bank had said that the applications (B)/would need to scrutinized by a standing committee, (C)/which has been appointed only now (D).

(A) Although the guidelines for on-tap licensing were announced as early as 2016

(B) the central bank had said that the applications

(C) would need to scrutinized by a standing committee

(D) which has been appointed only now

(E) No error

Answer: C

Explanation:

Here, somebody has to scrutinize. So, 'need to be scrutinized' is correct. We will add the word 'be' after need.

Although the guidelines for on-tap licensing were announced as early as 2016, the central bank had said that the applications would need to be scrutinized by a standing committee, which has been appointed only now.

Q69. To resolve issues that have cropped up between itself (A)/and the department of financial services within the finance ministry (B)/on the issue of valuation of ATI bonds, market regulator Sebi (C)/provided that another way to value these instruments (D).

(A) To resolve issues that have cropped up between itself

(B) and the department of financial services within the finance ministry

(C) on the issue of valuation of ATI bonds, market regulator Sebi

(D) provided that another way to value these instruments

(E) No error

Answer: D

Explanation:

The preposition 'that' is unnecessary with the verb 'provided'. It should be removed. The meaning of the phrase 'provided that' is 'if, or only if'.

To resolve issues that have cropped up between itself and the department of financial services within the finance ministry on the issue of valuation of ATI bonds, market regulator Sebi provided another way to value these instruments.

Q70. Many ears will be cooked to hear (A)/the president essay an address (B)/crafted by Vinay Reddy, Biden's chief speechwriter, whose job is (C)/to translate the president's ideas into words (D).

- (A) Many ears will be cooked to hear
- (B) the president essay an address
- (C) crafted by Vinay Reddy, Biden's chief speechwriter, whose job is
- (D) to translate the president's ideas into words
- (E) No error

Answer: A

Explanation:

The word 'cooked' is incorrect.

The correct word should be 'cocked'. To cock your ear means to listen very carefully. It should be used here.

Many ears will be cocked to hear the president essay an address crafted by Vinay Reddy, Biden's chief speechwriter, whose job is to translate the president's ideas into words.